ABOUT HOTEL

The first heritage hotel in Split, Judita Palace, is the perfect choice for anyone who wants to experience personalized service and stay in an authentic hotel in the heart of the city. The hotel is located in a spacious 16th-century aristocratic palace on the main city square, only 50 meters from the western entrance to Diocletian's Palace. The space emanates its own inherent and unique charm, and each of the 19 bedrooms witnesses the history as well as the time ahead. Exceptional attention has been paid to the preservation and restoration of the original details found during the reconstruction and which are of invaluable cultural and historical importance. Judita Palace is an ideal place for anyone who wants to stay in the center of events and feel the rhythm of the city and at the same time it is a sanctuary for anyone who wants to take a break from the city crowds. Surrounded by centuries-old walls and bell towers, unobtrusive yet magnificent in its beauty of carved stone and renaissance beams, it guarantees an unforgettable experience for every guest regardless the reason of their stay. Judita Palace is an ideal choice for everyone who is searching for more than a hotel.

LAYOUT AND ACCESS

Hotel features 19 guestrooms spread around two buildings which are connected by an open courtyard where the hotel bar is located. From this garden-like courtyard left staircase leads into the main building, and the right staircase leads into the villa.

Front desk, public areas, dining room and lounge are all located on the first floor of the main building as well as 7 guest rooms. Second and third floor each have 4 guest rooms and the penthouse occupies the entire fourth floor and a private rooftop terrace above. Upper floors are accessible by elevator from the first floor. There is no elevator access to the ground floor. Three additional units are located in the villa, first and second floor each having one guestroom, with Family Duplex taking third and fourth floors. All of the rooms in the villa feature views to the city's main square and the surrounding streets.
